

“No man can rightly present the law of God without the gospel, or the gospel without the law. The law is the gospel embodied, and the gospel is the law unfolded. The law is the root, the gospel is the fragrant blossom and fruit which it bears.”—Ellen G. White, Christ’s Object Lessons, p. 128.

1. Discuss the quote above with a partner then rewrite it in your own words-you need the bible to understand God's laws and you need the laws to understand the bible. you need to have both in your life.

Discuss the following questions with a partner and be ready to share with the class at large-

2. Why is it so enticing to do what you know you’re not supposed to do?
Because it is sometimes the easiest way to do it or it may be something that you want to do because of social reasons.
3. What other Bible stories or verses remind us of this problem that humankind faces?
the Prodigal Son and when Moses does not do exactly as God says when trying to get water from the rock.
4. What kinds of things would have been tempting for the Israelites after they had settled in Canaan?
To leave to have a different life, to take the easy way out.
